

FROM CLIMATE CHANGE TO COVID: NAVIGATING THE RACIST PITFALLS OF URGENCY

A WEBINAR PANEL AND BOOK LAUNCH
12 MAY 2020 19:00–20:30 CEST

What do climate justice activists need to know about the ways racist right-wing groups leverage the politics of climate change and urgency? How does structural racism shape the global health outcomes of COVID-19? How are migration and anti-racist struggles adapting in different parts of the world? What does solidarity look like in the context of COVID-19?

Like climate change, the era of COVID-19 raises important political questions about how society can be re-organized to keep the people most vulnerable in transition safe. And like the politics of climate change, there is a growing risk of far right and authoritarian discourses seizing moments of crises to forward their racist and xenophobic agendas.

JOIN HILARY MOORE IN CONVERSATION WITH:

Liz Fekete author and director of Institute for Race Relations in London, England

Vincent Bababoutilabo organizer with the NSU-Tribunal and the Institute for Black People in Germany

Michelle Mascarenhas-Swan collective member of Movement Generation Justice & Ecology Project in the US

Hilary Moore is the author of the forthcoming booklet Burning Earth, Changing Europe: How the Racist Right Exploits the Climate Crisis - And What We Can Do About It.

This booklet is a toolkit in the project of resisting racist, xenophobic, and authoritarian influences in the political arenas of climate change. Burning Earth, Changing Europe is for anyone who wants to learn more about keeping climate change a progressive issue.

REGISTER HERE NOW

